

LIVERPOOL MEDICAL HISTORY SOCIETY

2011-12 programme

2011

- 4 October Mrs Meg Parkes
Tins, Tubes and Tenacity: Inventive Medicine in Far East Prisoner of War Camps
- 2 November Dr James Carmichael
'In the beginning there was Montserrat': Liverpool Medicine in the Second World War
- 6 December The Seventh Annual History of Medicine Medical Students' Prize Evening
(6.00 p.m. start – booking essential: admin@lmi.org.uk)

2012

- 1 February Professor Hilary Marland and Dr Catherine Cox (University of Warwick)
Itineraries of Insanity: Madness, Migration and the Irish in Lancashire, c.1850-1900'
- 7 March Dr Richard McKay (Kings College London)
Patient Zero: the early years of HIV and AIDS
- 18 April Professor Sir Iain Chalmers (The James Lind Initiative)
The Evolution of Controlled Trials

Refreshments from 5.00 pm, talks begin at 5.30 pm

Liverpool Medical Institution

114 Mount Pleasant (entrance at rear of Lloyds bank, by The Font)

All welcome!

For further information, please contact Dr Sally Sheard, 0151 794 4552; sheard@liv.ac.uk, or see the society's webpage at: www.lmi.org.uk