

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

David Edwards, a nuclear physicist of some forty years' standing, was formerly Reader in the Department of Physics in the University of Liverpool. He initiated the University's MSc in the History of Science and Technology through which he has guided nearly 40 students over recent years.

D.N.Menzies graduated in medicine at Liverpool in 1948 and has now retired from his post as Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist at the Women's Hospital, Liverpool. He is a Liveryman of the Worshipful Society of Apothecaries and is a Freeman of the City of London.

M.W.Royden teaches history at Whitby High School, South Wirral, and is a part-time lecturer in local history in the Department of Continuing Education of the University of Liverpool. His publications include histories of the Royal School for the Blind (Liverpool), Mill Road Hospital and the Oxford Street and Catherine Street hospitals.

J.J.Rivlin retired from general practice in 1993. He was awarded an MSc in the History of Science and Technology in 1997 for his dissertation on the history of the Liverpool Medical School and its alumni. He has published several papers in the area of Manipulative Medicine.

Danielle Pettit is a recent graduate of the School of History in the University of Liverpool. Her paper is abstracted from her final year dissertation.