

DR JOHN A CAMPBELL, CONSULTANT PATHOLOGIST

Dr John A Campbell, retired Consultant Pathologist. Born 1923. John qualified from Trinity College, Dublin in 1946. Died August 2015.

He joined the pathology department at Broadgreen Hospital in the early 1950s where he remained until his retirement at age 65.

Married in 1958 to Gladys, a nurse who died a year after John. They leave 3 daughters, 2 sons, 8 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

John loved classical music and gardening. Roses were a particular favourite and he was a member of the Royal National Rose Society.

He had been a member of the LMI since 1952 and was made a Life Member in 1997.

Vivien Powell (daughter)